THIRTY-NINTH YEAR NO. 6.

STATE — COUNTY TAXES MAY BE PAID UNTIL APRIL WITHOUT PENALTY LAW

Only Those Who Paid Poll Taxes and All Other Taxes On Or Before February 1 Will Be Qualified to Vote In 1930 Elections Is Constitutional Law.

More than half of the county and state taxes were paid into the office of the county tax collector on or before February 1, Deputy Jos. W. Bontemps, stated this week. It is only those who have paid not only poll, but all personal and real taxes in state, county and city, who are qualified voters under the constitutional law, it was pointed out.

The legislature passed a law this week granting to tax payers the privilege of paying county and state taxes until April 1 without a penalty assessed, but this does not grant anyone a permit to vote even though the poll tax was paid before February 1, it was said.

The legislature only granted a privilege in paying ad valorem taxes, hence, taxes on autos are not extended beyond the original December 31 and under the law a penalty must be assessed on autos which did not have licenses secured before that date, it was said.

JAS. MUNTON RIVER FARM PROP. SOLD

Nearly One Thousand Acres North of Pine Hills Involves $23,000 Transaction

Last week The Echo noted a number of realty transfers, including the sale of the former Peerless Company land at the point where Second Street and North Beach boulevard converge, with 500 feet frontage, to Mrs. J. D. Nix, for a consideration of $50,000, and none this week carries more interest than the reported sale of the Munton farm, on Jordan River, north of Pine Hills, a tract consisting of 980 acres to combined interest through the real estate agency of C. Greer Moore, of Bay St. Louis and New Orleans.

This property fronts Jordan river and is situated between the towns of Fenton and Kiln, is owned by the heirs of the late James Munton, retired capitalist of Detroit, Michigan, who came South years ago and spent the evening time of his life in highly successful and scientific agricultural pursuit, truck, dairying and livestock farming. The land also has 300 feet frontage on Bayou Benaschoire. The home dwelling was rebuilt about ten years ago to conform with modern lines and appointments and sets in an improved orange grove of about ten acres.

The name of the purchaser who will live there and use it as a suburban home is not known, but Mr. Moore says the resident will be an acquisition to the county, and plans extensive improvement.

Mrs. Armstrong Ill

Friends of Mrs. M. J. Armstrong of 30 Second street are glad to know that she shows a slight improvement for the better. She has been quite ill for over three weeks and her friends, who are legion, have been much concerned over her condition. She has lived a fine life and will be 80 years old August 15. During her illness she has received many courtesies from her inquiring friends, particularly kind being the sisters from St. Joseph's Academy who have assisted in her care. Mrs. Nicholas J. Nutter of New Orleans, whose mother was a childhood friend of Mrs. Armstrong, spent Thursday here at her bedside. BAY ROTARY BENEFIT IS WEEK'S HIT

Minstrel Performance For Night School Fund Cashes In Big—Splendid Entertainment.

Success perched high on the banner of the Bay Rotary Club Wednesday night on the occasion of the minstrel entertainment at Bay High School, benefit night, school sponsored by the club and one of the outstanding public work unanimously commended.

The auditorium of the Bay Hi was filled to overflowing and for over two hours the audience was entertained beyond measure and with quality added to quantity. There were solos, chorus and dance, numbers highly pleasing, black-face sketches and various numbers that gave spice since it has been accepted variety is the spice.

Dr. James A. Evans, interlocutor, as King Dodo, kept the soul of the minstrel party a-swing, never a moment's drag, and with Arthur A. Scalfide as Sittica, George R. Rea as Ueless, M. O. Blanchard as Echo and Bennie Hille as Epsom, added end-men, added great zest, resulting in the greatest minstrel performance presented locally. Juvenile end-men were Murray Hawkins, as Tambo, Gordon Boswell as Bumbo, Curtis Lader as Bozo and Jack Jackson as Bones. Circle men were Messrs. C. A. Gordon, L. S. Elliott, C. J. Gordon, John de Armas, Val Yates, Carlos de Armas and Dr. Shipp and Dr. Smith.

A pleasing feature was a review of songs, with chorus, from plays locally presented in former occasions.

1. "Microbe of Love," Dorothy Wells
2. Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tick, Jerry Gordon and Frank Beeson
3. "Flapper Grandmother," Hermie Perkins
4. "Rosetime," Mary Perkins
5. "Cupid Up to Date," Mildred Cagle
6. "Here Comes Arabella," Miriam Summersgill

Miss B. Smith and Miss Irma Koch as "Peat" and "Repeat" were effective and pleasing heralds.

A musical number, violin and piano by Misses Mary and Jennie di Benedetto added to the artistic side of the program. Songs by end-men and circle men included "Darktown Wedding Day," "Mammy Song," "Underneath the Cotton Moon," "Down Where the Sunflowers Grow," Solo by Val Yates proved tremendously popular and danced by a Sanflower chorus and a fetching solo by Mr. L. S. Elliott registered with much favor.

A negro sketch, "The Dark Triangle," a court scene, made a decided hit, with Messrs. John C. de Armas, C. J. Gordon and Miss Alice Louise Nathan, as characters was par excellence.

Messrs. McClain, tap dancer, teamed with Chas. A. Breath brought forth unstinted applause, thus serving as an indelible stamp of approval of the act.

Some of the best things are always kept for the last, and the presentation of "Negro Sermon and Wedding," was no exception. This was an excruciatingly funny for two reasons, the get-up and the manner in which it was given. Arthur Scalfide as Bro. Bevo, was true to the exacting part, uproariously funny; and Miss B. Smith as bride and Carlos de Armas were imitable in their respective parts as the belligerent bride and groom.

The palm of the evening goes to Arthur Scalfide as Bro. Bevo, the negro preacher and his preach. Various chorus numbers were pleasing and were participated in by the following Blackbird Chorus Girls: Miriam, Summersgill, Jean, Peacock, Mary Alice, Loretta, Peacock, Edna, Graham Power, Mary Elba Marshall, Miriam Heitzman, Lois Ansley, Ruth Ballard, Carroll Joulain, Katherine Heiderman, Vanda Leigh Toquet and Elva Lader.

Picanninny Chorus: Little Misses Z. I. Capdepone, H. Kergosien, I. Davies, B. Bourgeois, M. Kittrell, J. Graves, S. Smith, E. Baylis. The Rotary Club and Miss Marielle Cooke, who directed the play, wish to thank all advertisers and those in the cast for their hearty cooperation and support of the night school.

Owing to illness of the pianist, Mrs. H. U. Anty, Mr. Lloyd J. LeBon, seated at St. Stanislaus College, substituted and acquitted himself creditably. The Rotary Club netted $151.00 in round figures.

For a time it was thought that he would not recover but reports are that now he is doing well and gradually recuperating.

SAWMILL AT THE KILN IS CLOSED

Mill of Edward Hines Lumber Company at Kiln Blows For Last Times Tuesday

Fifteen long blasts, one for each year of operation, announced Tuesday closing of the saw mills at Kiln owned and operated by the Edward Hines Lumber Yellow Pine Trust, domiciled in this State, but its owners of Chicago.

For an indefinite period, however, the planing mill will operate and as there is much lumber on the yards, this work will continue for a while.

The Hines Yellow Pine Trusts operated for a period extending over fifteen years, and during that time shipped lumber to all parts of the world, cutting away part of the finest timber of this and surrounding counties. However, all of the timber has not been cut away and from time to time there are rumors to the effect the mill might be sold as a whole or in part and operated as long as the remaining timber might last.

The closing of the mill is viewed with general regret. Messrs. Hines & Co., locally represented by Messrs. W. F. and C. J. Pettibone and their associates, have made many friends both in business and privately. Their way of conducting business has meant much for the county and people.

MRS. CLARK CHOSEN -ZONE PRESIDENT

Mrs. C. C. Clark of Bay St. Louis, was elected zone president of the Women's Missionary Societies of the churches in the zone which extends from Hancock to Jackson counties, at the meeting held Tuesday at Biloxi Wesley Memorial House. Miss Hallie Buie, a missionary, who has been in Korea, told of her work. Mrs. J. W. Alford, conference president, was another speaker. Rev. J. L. Sells, presiding elder, also spoke as well as quite a few others connected with the church work.

Mrs. J. W. Downs, Nashville, Tenn., made an especially interesting address on "Road Building," bringing the thought that those of this generation are carrying on the task of continuing the road started by those of previous generations and urging that those of this day build well for those to come, so that there will be no weak parts. She also spoke of the Conference at London of its efforts for World Peace.

At the noon hour dinner was served by the local auxiliary. There were about 150 at the meeting.

SMALL SUM LAW DOES SPENT FOR NOT AFFECT EDUCATION BAY CITY

Prof. Boggan of Picayune Gives Statistics of Expenditures for Education

About 95 per cent of the teachers of Hancock county attended the monthly meeting of the Hancock County Teachers Association Saturday morning at the Central School, Bay St. Louis.

Prof. T. K. Boggan, principal of the Picayune school, was the main speaker. He gave statistics showing that the amount of money in the United States spent for education is about 2 per cent of the total income of the nation, and that Mississippi is one of the lowest states in the per cent paid. He pointed out that more money is spent for luxuries, such as cosmetics and passenger autos than for education. He explained that the misunderstanding which exists in many minds over the reason for high taxes should be dispelled by showing that it is not for schools and educational purposes that the bulk of taxes is spent but for roads, public buildings and like improvements and developments.

The pupils of the Webb school, Bay St. Louis, under the direction of their teachers, Miss Vanner Berry, Miss Lydia Boyd Blount and Mrs. Fred Wright, presented a playlet, "St. Valentine's Day," which was enjoyed.

The departmental meetings which had been planned were not held as the general meeting was late in opening. One more meeting of the association for the school year is scheduled for March 1.

ESTIMABLE RESIDENT OF HANCOCK COUNTY BACK TO NATIVE SOIL

Mrs. Sarah Koch, Dies At Poplarville, and Is Buried Sunday Afternoon Near Logtown.

Mrs. Frank Koch, born Sarah Summers, died Saturday afternoon at the home of her son, Dr. W. T. Koch, at Poplarville, following a long illness, and was buried at the Koch family burial grounds near Logtown Sunday afternoon, the ceremonies at the grave conducted under the auspices of the Order of the Eastern Star, of which she was a member, local pastor of the Logtown Methodist church participating.

Before leaving Poplarville funeral ceremony was held at the First Methodist Church, where many friends and acquaintances of the family gathered.

Mrs. Koch would have been 74 years of age had she lived to May and was a native of Pearlaring, spending the major portion of her life at Pearlaring and later at Logtown until eight years ago when, failing health, she moved to Poplarville to reside with her son, W. T., a physician. Her husband passed away some thirty years or more.

Surviving are Dr. W. T. Koch, Poplarville; F. N. Koch, Poplarville; R. B. Koch of Bay St. Louis, and one daughter, Mrs. Harry Baxter, residing at Logtown. Mrs. Koch was the last surviving member of her father's family.

A more estimable woman, a better Christian never lived. Hers was a life devoted to service and her unselfish spirit and open heart and willing hands won for her the love of all who knew her.

Her son, R. B. Koch is resident manager of the Serve-Your Store of this city.

INTERESTING WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT

Married—At Memphis, Tenn., at the church of the Blessed Sacrament on Friday, January 31, Thomas Hale, of Bay St. Louis, and Miss Catherine Mancini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mancini, of Cherry Circle, West Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. Hale are spending their "honeymoon" in Bay St. Louis and are house guests of Mr. Hale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Hale, at 1306 North Beach boulevard, and will leave within the next few days for Europe.

The bride is well known in Memphis and in cultural circles and prominent in social life. The news of this interesting marriage will be read with genuine pleasure.

City Depository and Publication of City Allowances Sought by Council

The city council at the meeting Monday transacted several matters of business. Bids were ordered advertised for a city depository and for publication of city allowances, returnable at the March meeting. The contracts for these expire in April.

The $8,000 borrowed by the city from the Merchants Bank and Trust Company was ordered paid February 15, from the taxes collected.

The delinquent tax payers roll for city taxes was ordered published this week as the city sells under the law this tax property the first Monday in March. The list this year is longer than in former years, it was said. It is pointed out by Mayor Chas. Traub, Sr., that the law passed by the state legislature permitting the payment of state and county taxes until April 1 without penalty, does not affect the city taxes, and that all city taxes not paid before February 1, cause the property real or personal to be delinquent. Those taxes which are paid before the day of sale in March can redeem the property from sale providing expense of advertising as damages be added to the taxes.

FREE PUBLICITY IN COAST PAPERS TO BE ELIMINATED

Coast Press Club In Session At Biloxi Discuss Various Subjects and Problems

The Mississippi Coast Press and Printing Club held its regular monthly dinner meeting at the Buena Vista Hotel, Biloxi, Monday night, with practically every newspaper and master print shop on the Coast represented. B. B. Brumfield, editor-publisher Biloxi News, was official host and how well and hospitably he entertained the craftsmen of the press is best known to those fortunate to have been present.

The session, in the attractive setting of the main dining room of the Buena Vista was informal and social and subjects discussed had as their principal aim the further upbuilding of the Coast through the medium of the printed word—both with printing and newspaper publicity, powerful and in influential mediums not to be discounted. Another high spot of the proceedings was the subject of eliminating free advertising and free publicity and an effort made to save the business man from being bled by itinerant solicitors who peddled advertising, schemes too frequently born of local origin.

Clayton Rand, publisher Gulfport Guide and owner of the Dixie Press, creative printing, led in a discussion of upbuilding the Coast. He said the press had accomplished a great deal but now that it was organized in solid phalanx it could accomplish something really big for this section and people. Chas. G. Moreau, Sea Coast Echo, Bay St. Louis, fired a bombshell into the camp of the free space grafter, by leading the discussion and free publicity and an effort made to save the business man from being bled by itinerant solicitors who peddled advertising, schemes too frequently born of local origin.

Clayton Rand of the Dixie Press displayed fine letter press work and copy of a brand new magazine, "Fortune," a monthly selling for $1.00 per number.

The next meeting is scheduled for the first Monday in March in Gulfport and will be known as the Wiggins session with O. L. Bond as host.

Those in attendance were: Ralph E. Brash, Gulfport Printing Co.; President; Charles G. Moreau, Sea Coast Echo, vice-president; W. T. Sparkman, Chronicle-Star, Pascagoula; O. L. Bond, Stone County Enterprise, Wiggins; Clayton Rand, and Miss Flora Langley, Dixie Press, Gulfport; E. E. Lipscomb, Mississippi Guide; B. B. Brumfield, Biloxi News; E. P. Wilkes, Daily Herald.

MISS MAUFFRAY VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. O. Mauffray received a message Tuesday from Oxford, where their daughter, Judith, a student at University of Mississippi, that the young lady had met with a most distressing accident.

It appears she was taken suddenly ill while in the bathroom of her room at the University and fainted, falling she struck her face across the top of a bath tub and sustained a fractured jaw. Her parents were immediately apprised of the accident and she was rushed to the Memphis hospital where the extent of her injury was undetermined up to the time of writing. It was hoped the jaw could be set without a major operation.

Miss Judith is one of the younger daughters of the Mauffray family, a most earnest student, and her many friends will learn with concern of the accident and subsequent illness, and the hope is expressed for her early recovery and resumption of class duties at the University.

When it comes to big pedal extremities, Primo Carnera, the giant Italian pugilist, gets the blue ribbon. He wears a size 21 shoe. Some feet!

Fire destroyed a business block at Durant last Thursday night, causing a loss of more than $100,000. A bank, hotel, two grocery stores, a drug store and a dry goods establishment were burned.

Work on a new sewer system for Hattiesburg, costing nearly $400,000, will start in the next few days. More than fifty-five miles of sewer will be laid and the contractor says the job will be completed in 300 working days.

If conditions are even one half as bad in the Baptist Orphanage at Jackson as they are reported by the health officer of Hinds county the superintendent should be kicked out immediately—if not sooner! He is the same chap now under indictment on a charge of cruel and inhuman treatment of one of the girl inmates of the orphanage.

Mr. W. F. Bond, State superintendent of education, had knowledge of the fact of Bura Hilbun's rascality many months before the public was aware of any wrong doing on the part of Hilbun, but Mr. Bond kept such knowledge to himself. And he is another of the men who has been "touted" as a fit person to fill the high office of chief executive of our great State.

Our old friend Tom Heflin, the Hoovercratic senator from Alabama, received "the unkindest cut of all" last week when the Democratic executive committee of his home county (Chambers) refused to intercede with the Alabama State committee in his behalf and rescind its action in barring all Hoovercrats as candidates in the approaching Democratic primary election. All honor to the members of that county executive committee!

A perusal of the report of the legislature committee investigating Bura Hilbun's activities as supervisor of negro schools and later as director of the agricultural service department, is well worth reading. Facts and figures are given in detail, and if he is not sent to the penitentiary for embezzling public funds, then no other thief or grafter in this State should ever be prosecuted in our courts.

The women are running the political jobs up in DeSoto county, this State, or at least most of them. Mrs. Nick Noel is a member of the legislature; Mrs. Leila McArthur is circuit clerk; Miss Epsy B. Morgan is superintendent of education; Mrs. Clifton is sheriff and tax-collector; Mrs. Winnie Gartrell is deputy chancery clerk and Miss Martha Lauderdale is chief deputy in the sheriff's office. And The Echo is willing to wager "dollars to doughnuts" that every one of those women are filling their respective positions just as efficiently as any he-man could do it.

Over in Atlanta, Ga., the other night a man and woman were shot to death when they attempted to "play a joke" on a man whom they knew had been the recipient of several letters demanding blackmail money. They knocked on his door and when he opened it they ordered him to throw up his hands. He complied without hesitation, but in one hand was a trusty pistol and as it spit fire and lead both of the "jokers" fell mortally wounded. It doesn't pay for folks to play practical jokes unless they are dead sure of not having the tables turned on them.

THIS IS FOR YOU!

There are a whole lot of people who think of the home town paper when they want a little publicity in its columns, but they forget all about its existence when they have items of interesting news to give out. Its funny, but true.

IF LONGER, HOW MUCH "SHORTER?"

The committee investigating the shortage of Bura Hilbun, late supervisor of negro schools, made its report to the legislature last week and found that it amounted to $83,289.70. He was supervisor only a short time, and there's no telling how much he would have gotten away with had he been on the job for a longer period.

MUST TOE THE LINE

Under provisions of the election laws of Florida no Hoovercrat can vote in the approaching Democratic primary election, according to an opinion given by the attorney general of that State. He also ruled that Democratic candidates will have to sign a sworn statement that they did not vote for any member of any other party other than the Democratic party in the last general election.

U. S. MARINE BAND IN BILOXI

The U. S. Marine Band, one of the foremost musical organizations in the world, will help to furnish music at the Confederate Veterans' reunion in Biloxi next June. Acting Secretary of the Navy Ernest Lee Jahncke having written the reunion manager Maj. E. R. Wiles that an appropriation of $7,500 was available for expenses of sending the band to the Fifteen other bands will also be there, including the famous Birmingham Police Band.

LET US HOPE SO

The concluding paragraph of a splendid editorial under the caption "Ten Years of Prohibition" from the pen of Francis S. Hamon, editor of the Hattiesburg American, we read:

"As bad as federal enforcement has been; as wet as certain sections of the land still are; as serious as the disrespect for law has become—the fact remains that we have made genuine progress and that the next five years bid fair to see a sharp decline in the importation of spirituous liquors from abroad, and a reawakening of the American conscience toward the duties of the individual citizen toward all the laws of the land."

Let us hope so at any rate. But we are prone to believe conditions stand small chance of improvement, notwithstanding the insistent demands made for a tightening up in the enforcement of the prohibition statutes.

Disrespect for the law has come from the farcical manner in which those charged with its enforcement have "laid down on the job," and so it will continue we are afraid. The Echo hopes it is mistaken in reaching such a conclusion, but its observations of late leads it to believe that instead of any improvement in conditions every day brings proof that they are going from bad to worse.

Conviction of State, county and municipal officials in different sections of the country on the charge of being in league with rum-runners and bootleggers is not proof that progress is being made in "drying" up the nation or that there has been any decline in the importation of liquors.

Where one prohibition law violator is caught there are thousands of them escaping, and we have serious doubt that the quantity of intoxicants consumed now is very much less than was consumed in the days before the Eighteenth Amendment was adopted and the Volstead law enacted.

FOR AIR LINE PAVED HIGHWAY.

The Biloxi chamber of commerce has endorsed the movement started by New Orleans banking officials and the Louisiana Motor League regarding the construction of an air line paved highway from the Louisiana state line to connect with the Bay St. Louis-Waveland beach boulevard at Lakeshore, in cooperation with a paved highway from New Orleans to Pearl River, as endorsed by Gov. Huey P. Long.

A coast-wide mass meeting, to be held in Bay St. Louis, to which our Louisiana neighbors will be invited, has been proposed, at which time the matter will be considered.

The Echo is heartily in favor of the construction of the proposed air-line highway, and all the influence it can possibly exert will be wielded in favor of the project, however, at this time it does not think that Hancock county taxpayers would vote a bond issue to defray any part of the cost of its construction, therefore it believes if private capital could be enlisted in the project when constructed that it be operated as a toll road until the cost of construction is realized by the builders would be the only hope of getting the highway.

At a nominal toll charge for each vehicle, motor or otherwise, the cost of construction would be met in a very short time. The already great and growing increase in traffic from year to year would insure large returns in tolls as the highway when constructed would lessen the distance by the present highway some twenty-odd miles.

SHOULD BE BARRED

The electoral vote of the great State of Texas in 1928 was given to the Republican presidential nominee, as the Ku Klux and religious fanatics made a successful fight against the national Democratic ticket. However, it seems that there is a Democratic executive committee over there composed of men who have the courage to bar the Hoovercrats from participation in Democratic primaries as candidates.

The Echo is now anxiously awaiting the meeting of our Mississippi State Democratic executive committee to see what action it will take along the same line. A large number of men, long prominent in Democratic party councils, "kicked over the traces" in the 1928 campaign, worked and voted for the Republican nominees, and we are wondering whether they will be permitted to have any voice or be allowed to have their names on the ballot in any future Democratic primary election. If the membership of our State committee is composed of the right sort of men they will certainly deny the right of all Hoovercrats to either vote or be candidates in our primary election.

Mississippi, since the reconstruction days, has been the most solidly Democratic commonwealth in the Union and the State committee can well afford to give offense to the small bunch of disloyal renegades who wandered from the party fold in 1928. Will the committee have the courage to put up the bars, as did the State committees of Alabama and Texas.

RULING SHOULD INCLUDE ALL OFFICIALS

Attorney General Mitchell has a proper appreciation of the eternal fitness of things when he asserts that enforcement of the prohibition laws should be in the hands of officials who are not liquor drinkers or are not in full sympathy with the law. If the present force of marshals and undercover men—and we might add judges and district attorneys—was purged of all the "soaks" in it there would be need for recruiting another army of enforcement officials.

The Buckingham Annex hotel in St. Louis was destroyed by fire some time since, the blaze being of mysterious origin. Seven persons were burned to death, and it now turns out that the structure was set on fire by an employee hired by the proprietor who had promised him $5,000 to apply the match. If the two scoundrels get their just deserts they will be hanged by their necks "until dead, dead, dead."

An exchange remarks that "a clear conscience is more to be desired than a pull with the police." To be sure! But there are more folks who prefer the latter.

W. G. Forsythe, pastor of the Main Street Methodist church. The ceremony was quietly performed in the midst of a few in-

Will Rogers is not a dairyman or a poultry raiser, so far as we know. He is, however, a man who has the happy combination of wide experience, keen observation and a delicious sense of humor. He is a wise-cracker supreme and has attained to international fame by virtue of the fact that he can crack more sense and humor into a few short words than any other person. Invariably he hits the nail on the head. Listen to his comment on the stock market break of a few weeks since:

"What does it mean? Nothing. Why, if the cows of this country failed to come up and get milked one night it would be more of a panic than if Morgan and Lamont had never held a meeting. Why, an old sow and a litter of pigs make more people a living than all the steel and General Motors stock combined. Why, the whole 120,000,000 of us are more dependent on the cackling of a hen than if the stock exchange was turned into a night club."

At the time Will felt moved to express himself thusly he was endeavoring to orient the general public as to the exact extent of the stock market's importance on the fundamental causes of our prosperity. He entitled it "Grass-eating Stock Is the Kind to Buy." Now as the break recedes into history and we continue to eat, live under the same old roof and buy gasoline the same as ever, the Rogers wisdom may be applied to the importance of the poultry and live stock industry with equal pertinence.—Hattiesburg American.

GET RICH IN MANHOOD

That young man is worse than foolish who starts out with the sole purpose of being a moneyed man. First, get rich in manhood. Then the money part, and all the happiness which you think money can buy will be taken care of by a universal providence that is unfailing. You can't beat the laws of eternity. The man who tries is already doomed.—Yazoo Sentinel.

The property, on the corner of Union and Hancock streets, known as the Dan Seal home, for many years, was sold by the Johnson estate during the week for a cash consideration of $5,000.00. Mr. J. C. Brown of Plaquemine, La., purchased the place for his own occupancy, his family to take possession at once.

Dr. A. A. Kergosien, county clerk, was an official visitor to Jackson during the week and while there attending the sessions of the solons. He says the legislature is very busy and much work is being accomplished.

The remains of Mrs. Andre Cospolich were conveyed from Biloxi to Bay St. Louis during the week. Mrs. Cospolich, who was a daughter of Mrs. Rutherford, keeper of the Bayou Le Grand public bridge, was a victim of influenza, according to reports.

STANISLAUS COLLEGE ECHOES

Last week was some basket ball week! The outstanding games were naturally the Millsaps pair of games. Any one who did not get his money's worth will have to call on the doctor for defective vision. Every spectator of basketball wants to see some good shooting and some good pass work and they were combined in every detail of the eighty minutes that Stanislaus played against Millsaps.

The first game looked as if we had a walk away. After nine minutes of play the score stood 17 to 3 and the half ended 23 to 14. The second half started off like a whirlwind for the boys from up State; while we were snaring one basket they had thrown in six and promised to take the whole works but the pass work and goal shooting of Colotta, Toca and Halliday got under way and the score reversed until it stood at 33 all. Then our more accurate shooting took up the lead and we were never headed off. The game ending 49 to 41.

The second game was somewhat of a different color. Perhaps a good sleep worked wonders for the visitors for they hopped on the basket at the start of the whistles until the close. The half ending 25 to 22 and the game ended 52 to 51 with the bigger end. This game was a thriller from start to finish and we are sure that every one who attended felt that he had seen two real shooting teams and the crowd voiced its approval of the type of game played and we hope we shall see plenty more.

Springhill Varsity will be the attraction this week end. They always bring a good team and we know that this season will be no exception. If you want to see some real good basketball played, just drop up to the Gym Saturday night and we know you will come back for the second game on Sunday.

McGill Institute of Mobile came down to play us last Saturday and Sunday. All the fun they got out of it was the trip. As hard as they tried they could not even give our subs a good work out. The story of the game is told in the score of Sunday afternoon's game. S. S. C. 63 McGill 8.

They came they saw and returned home wiser and we hope with greater respect for Stanislaus.

Last Friday night the basket ball fans witnessed one of the cleanest games played on the floor this year. Long Beach came over with a well organized team but it could not stand the fast and clever players of the Saints 135 to 16.

The first part of the game was close. It was characterized by good passing and fast play on both sides. The Long Beach eagles the well coached 135 lb. team soon took a small lead and held it until the second half. Stanislaus came out stronger than they and despite all the efforts of Long Beach the final score tallied 29 for Stanislaus to 11 for Long Beach.

Junior Game

Bro. Conrad's baby Rosk-A-Chaws defeated the Pass Christian quintet in a decidedly one-sided match. The game started off slow. The half ending with the scores 13 to 2 for the Juniors.

The Rocks entered the second half with more vim and pep and soon were keeping the ball in their possession for the greater part of the game. The Pass fought back gamely and managed to tally a few points. But our Rocks were as hard as their name and gave no mercy up to the last minute when the second string players were put in.

We Are Shocked To Hear:

That Mr. Julio Andrade has the ants. That Pat tried to change his birth certificate. That somebody gave Wimpy the gate. That Falgout is running up a dentist bill. That Wolf is called the fish. That LeBoeuf is reading Romeo & Effie. That Tuga sings "Louise."

We Wonder Why:

Slade went from offense to defence. The varsity won't sit with the crowd. Garst is glad that he is a manager. Lyons likes them short and snappy. How James got his jerk. The girls like John Lilley. Texas wants to meet a certain party. O'Leary is called society. Speed is such a sap.

Would It Surprise You:

To see Sam Ballard tongue-tied. To see D'Aquin without a comb. Pat Wilson without an excuse. If D. Gizzatino took a wash under his nose. If C. Genard changed his address. If Jocko became Bull Blaise's brother-in-law. If O'Leary found a place in his heart for someone else. If Bill Foster became a professional wrestler. If Staulig didn't get a letter from C. C. Archie didn't like Christina. Scheknerbinger lost Beah.

Our president, Brother Peter, departed for Chicago Thursday morning.

The College boys went to the show Sunday night, this was unexpected by the student body, but gladly accepted.

A cinder path was made under the arch from the big study hall to the dining room. This is an improvement.

VALUE OF NEWS-PAPER ADVERTISING

The most successful men in all lines of business—whether it was selling shoe strings, stocks and bonds, machinery, dry goods, or what not—owe their success to advertising the articles they wished to sell, and keeping everlastingly at it!

From year to year they set aside a certain amount of money to be expended in acquainting the buying public with exactly what they had to offer and by systematic advertising methods that kept the public informed as to the quality and prices of their offerings.

Of course there are many and divers ways for business people to reach the public through advertising. Circulars, posters and bill board advertising never fail to attract some attention and draw more or less trade, but the best, surest and most effective method of increasing sales in any line of business is advertising through the columns of the newspaper reaching the trade territory contiguous to the town or city where the advertiser's place of business is located.

The results or benefits directly traceable to one, two, or three insertions of an advertisement in a newspaper may be negligible, indeed they may be unnoticeable, but by day after day or week after week continually pounding home the fact that the goods or wares of the advertiser are better, cheaper and more desirable in every way, than the goods and wares of competitors is by far the surest method by which to get results. There is one thing that advertisers must observe and keep in mind if they wish to obtain the best results and increased business and that is by strict adherence to honesty and truthfulness in their advertising matter. Every article they offer for sale must be as good if not better than it is described in their advertisement. A deceived customer takes his or her patronage elsewhere when once they find the article or goods purchased from on the strength of the description of same they have seen in the newspaper. Therefore, anything less than truthful advertising is two-fold in its effects, i. e., it destroys the confidence of customers, and oftentimes destroys the advertiser's belief in the benefits of advertising, as he is too dumb to realize that deception on his part results from his failure to live up to the promises made in his advertising.

As stated in the outset of this article, all legitimate schemes for attracting the attention of the buying public has the Echo's unqualified endorsement, however it is of the opinion, based on years of observation and experience, that by "keeping everlastingly at it" the best results of advertising is through publicity gained by well written and attractive—and truthful—advertising in the local newspaper. It goes into the homes of prospective customers—the people whose trade the advertiser is soliciting: it is read by every member of the family and is preserved long after posters, circular letters, etc., have been forgotten and thrown away, therefore nothing can be compared to it in advertising value as a bid for trade. And at the same time the cheapest means of advertising, all things considered.

Call to mind, if you can, any of the great fortunes made in the commercial world and among them name for us one that was not founded on advertising. You cannot name one. Newspaper advertising—"keeping everlastingly at it"—is the keynote of success in every line of business. It is the men who have not achieved success in their business ventures who say "advertising does not pay."

to keep the boys' feet from getting muddy before going into the dining hall.

The beams on the new building are being hoisted. The pouring of cement for the foundation is about completed.

Extracts Of A Student's Diary:

February 3. Somebody woke me up and wouldn't let me go back to sleep. Result, I got to school later than usual. Leche was there on time sitting calmly like a frog on a hot stove. My intention was to study, but the teacher left the room and I forgot it. Gee! I can't keep my mind off Louise, but what's the use of trying to anyway? Do you know somebody had the audacity to accuse me of using a "Latin Jack"? Of course I denied it, but nobody believes it. Gosh! these darn fool teachers sure get on my nerves, "they're making a fool outa me."

Short talks were given at the meeting of the Sodality held Saturday. Brother Edmond, John Scaffido, Bobbie Lacoste and Marshall Ballard. John Scaffido, who was secretary of the Sodality last year, spoke for a few minutes of how the Sodality has helped him out while he is away from the sodality now. At college there is not any Sodality in which to instill the boys in their religion. He instructed the boys of the Sodality for letting him use a little of his time in talking to the boys who were present. He wished that he could be with them every week as he was last year. The Sodality has proven itself a very useful method for those who have left school and have gone to some other school or college where there is no sodality to help them along.

Bobbie Lacoste complimented the boys of the Sodality on their good work in their Sodality and urged them to keep up the work and that they won't forget it when they are out of school either at college or at work. Always remember that when you join the Sodality it is not for the time that you are in high school but also in your after life, when you are at work or college.

Marshall Ballard was also called upon to address the boys in a short talk. He also complimented the boys on their work and said that he is sorry that there is not a Sodality at college where he is going. Often a group of boys who have graduated from here (Stanislaus) and who belong to the Sodality get together and talk of the different discussions that they had at the meetings each week over here.

WORK AND PLAY AT S. J. A.

Gold Jay vs. Mater Delorosa High School.

Mater Delorosa High School which is a member of the Catholic School Athletic League of New Orleans has written that it would positively be at the Bay Sunday for their promised game with the Jays. The game will be played as a preliminary to the S. S. C. game and is scheduled for 2:30. Mater Delorosa High School won second place in the C. S. A. L. City Tournament held in New Orleans in 1928, so the Gold Jays will have to fight hard to make this game as victorious as the three previous ones have been.

"Come on Gold Jays—We're betting on you!" "Come on Gold Jays—Fight, Fight, Fight!"

Jays to go to New Orleans. With Convention Delegates.

The Jays are elated at the thought of going to New Orleans next week to play the Holy Angels and Mount Carmel teams. Since the majority of the girls on the teams are also Children of Mary—the Jays will take this opportunity of returning the games which they owe to the above named teams while they are in New Orleans for the Convention.

Forty Hours Devotion.

The Forty Hours Devotion took place at Our Lady of the Gulf Church Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The girls of S. J. A. tried to get the fullest benefit possible from this great time of grace. The various classes replaced one another continuously for half hour's adoration from 8:30 to 3:00 o'clock.

S. J. A. was represented in large numbers at the beautiful Holy Hour which closed the Forty Hours Tuesday evening.

Sodality Convention

At a short meeting of the Children of Mary held Friday at 1 o'clock, Father Mulry's latest letter concerning the Convention was read to the Sodality by the President. It contained the information that S. J. A. of Bay St. Louis had been added to the thirty-four Schools throughout the South which are to be represented at the Sodality Convention to be held at the Loyola Gymnasium, Saturday, February 15.

Fifteen girls from the four High school classes gave their names and definitely signified their intention of attending the Convention. Much interest is being taken in this all-Southern meeting of Sodality and by the end of the week the list of delegates from S. J. A. will probably be increased by ten more names. S. J. A. is looking forward to this convention and expects to do its part in the greatest possible good for the Sodality.

LEGISLATURE IS BUSY, WITH MANY BILLS FILED AND ACTED ON THE FLOOR

Bill Introduced to Prevent Changing of School Text Book; New History For Mississippi by Unknown Author To Be Adopted.

By R. L. Brown.

The Legislature is in its fifth week of the regular session. Much has been written about the lack of work done and on almost every hand the Legislature has been criticised for doing nothing. It is true that on the surface of things and to the casual observer, it might appear that these criticisms were justified, but those who are in close touch with the situation know that perhaps never before has a Legislature been more active in committee work than the present body. The work done by any legislature is judged largely by the number of bills acted upon on the floors. Ordinarily that is a good way to judge after the first five or six weeks, but it must be remembered that it takes time for the committees to consider the various and sundry bills introduced and to report them to the respective bodies.

The work of the present legislature is unusual because of the codification of all the laws of the State. Every committee are working on various parts of the dummy code, submitted by the code commission. It is hoped that the people will be patient with respect to the work being done by the legislature. The members are not deliberately killing time. Every one of them want to get through as soon as possible.

$7,500,000 First Year For Text Books

Spencer Tom Bailey, co-author with L. T. Kennedy, of the bill providing that the trustees of various school districts may continue to use text books now in use, states that he records show that the average cost of text books each year for the grammar grades, first through eighth, is approximately $400,000 under ordinary conditions. If the recent adoption of books by the Bilbo textbook commission holds, the entirely new set of books from the first through the eighth grammar grades will cost the patrons of the schools a minimum of $7,500,000. In other words the recent adoption by the Bilbo textbook commission would cost the school patrons three quarters of a million dollars the first session of school.

It is understood that some members of the textbook commission are endeavoring to justify their actions in changing all the textbooks, except one, by saying that the books now in use are from ten to twenty years old. Five years ago quite a number of textbooks were changed, bringing new books into use. It is understood, also, that some of the books recently adopted were made "up-to-date" by making only slight and insignificant changes. All this, however, will probably be definitely determined before the time for buying books for the next session of school.

It is understood that the Bilbo textbook commission will hold another meeting in February to consider the adoption of a Mississippi history. The minutes of the textbook commission of Dec. 20, 1929, show that "Mississippi history was not settled. Its adoption was postponed till the manuscript is completed, provided it is completed before the last of February." There is quite a story connected with this history. It is understood that a lady teacher at the State Teachers College is writing the history but that her name will not appear as author. It will be interesting to learn, when the manuscript is submitted, just whose name will appear as author. At any rate, the name first decided on as author will not appear.

Insane Hospital Bill Passes Senate.

The senate has passed a bill providing for two additional members to be added by appointment of the governor to the present hospital commission and the appropriation of $2,500,000 to complete the new institution.

Joan could stop tattling. Emmy would get mad so quickly. Gertrude knew her Cicero. Julie wouldn't be interested in "Immigrants."

Anna Mae would make up again. Dot Hubbard couldn't fix things up. Ann could drive to New Orleans. Dot Moss would stop being so sweet. Lucile's dreams came true. Marie and Dot Moss would agree. Eleanor got what she wants. Helen Key would cease to be lucky. Carmen would agree with her teachers. Carrie Koenen would stop laughing. The Sharks ever got together again. An S. S. S. should forget her turn. Catherine Scaffido would stay out of trouble. Nicolina would stop getting lines.

W. C. ROUNTREE, M. D.

I especially want you to write for my booklet. Mrs. Jewel Fletcher, Route No. 1, Box 99, Cleveland, Miss., writes: "I don't remember just what I weighed when I took your medicine, but I have grown in size and I now weigh 175 more than I have ever weighed in my life. I feel good, can work in the sun or in the house, wash, iron, or do anything. My mind seems to be alright again. I can sew and do hand work. I once could not do anything like that, my mind was torn up so badly, but I think I am now feeling well again."

FOR FREE DIAGNOSIS AND LITERATURE WRITE: W. C. Rountree, M. D., Austin, Texas

The addition of these two members would give Gov. Bilbo control of the commission to spend the money. The bill also repeals that part of the present law relative to the sale of the old hospital lands at Jackson. With the exception of repealing the sale of the land and the amount appropriated, this is practically the same bill which went to the House from the Senate during the first regular session. The House amended the bill striking off the two additional members. These amendments were accepted by the Senate and Governor Bilbo vetoed the bill, stopping the work on the new hospital. The Senate bill has gone to the House for consideration.

No Appropriations Before Revenues.

By common consent it seems that there will be no appropriations except for emergencies until an adequate revenue program is adopted. In this way the legislature hopes to hold the appropriations within the revenue receipts and not have a repetition of millions of dollars in deficits for the present biennium. A joint committee has been working on revenue program for two weeks but there is yet a wide difference of opinion as to what is the best plan.

And Another Resolution Gone.

About this time the man who swore off smoking with the start of 1930 has decided that such a resolution was foolish anyway.—Indianapolis News.

Keeps Right On.

Funny Mortal! He lives in a town where it is commercial suicide to offend the local big guy, and yet feels superior to the free man on the farm.—Los Angeles Times.

BAY GIRLS LOSE TO PASS CHRISTIAN

The Bay High Junior girls' team team was defeated by Pass Christian, 17 to 24, Tuesday afternoon at Pass Christian. The Nightmares led at the half, 13 to 12, but the experience of the Pass Christian first team was too much for them. Charlotte Hawkins and Lois Ansel played hard for Bay High, while Spence and Sprinkle did best for Pass Christian.

In Use Over 50 Years

If you have any of the following symptoms, I have the remedy no matter what your trouble has been diagnosed: Nervousness, stomach trouble, loss of weight, loss of sleep, sore mouth, pains in the back and shoulders, peculiar swimming in the head frothy like phlegm in throat, passing mucus from the bowels, especially after taking purgative, burning feet, brown, rough or yellow skin, burning or itching skin, rash on the hands, face and arms resembling sunburn, habitual constipation, (sometimes alternating with diarrhoea) copper or metallic taste, skin sensitive to sunbeats, forgetfulness, despondency and thoughts that you might lose your mind, gums a fiery red and falling away from the teeth, general weakness with loss of energy.

If you have these symptoms and have taken all kinds of medicine and still stick, I especially want you to write for my booklet.

Mrs. Jewel Fletcher, Route No. 1, Box 99, Cleveland, Miss., writes: "I don't remember just what I weighed when I took your medicine, but I have grown in size and I now weigh 175 more than I have ever weighed in my life. I feel good, can work in the sun or in the house, wash, iron, or do anything. My mind seems to be alright again. I can sew and do hand work. I once could not do anything like that, my mind was torn up so badly, but I think I am now feeling well again."

Personal Service

The Illinois Central System will carry this year forty-five million passengers and sixty million tons of freight. This will require the services of fifty thousand workers operating facilities in which three-quarters of a billion dollars are invested. These large figures call for mass production of service, yet we expect every passenger and shipper to receive personal, individual attention.

Such service can be rendered only by a personnel that is capable, willing and ready. Ours is. Members of the Illinois Central organization are constantly performing services for Illinois Central patrons that are more than merely transportation. They do this to be helpful, but they know too that it is good business for the railroad and for them.

Passenger service provides many examples of such service. Children traveling alone are entrusted to our protection. Aged, invalid and inexperienced travelers are given personal attention en route and met by individual escorts at terminals. Tours are planned for vacationists—hotel reservations made, baggage checked, side trips arranged. Shipments of travelers' automobiles are carefully followed to make sure of scheduled arrival.

Personal service is no less important in the handling of freight. An Illinois Central bureau keeps records of car movements for the information of those interested. Shipments are expedited, diverted, reconsigned. Cars of perishable freight are iced. Livestock is watered and fed. Whatever the requirements of individual service may demand, we endeavor to meet those requirements.

Experienced patrons of the Illinois Central System are accustomed to expect personal service, and every member of the Illinois Central organization is expected to be qualified, willing and ready to render such service.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

L. A. DOWNS,
President, Illinois Central System.

(1) IDA MAE LADNER, the girl of few words, was born nineteen years ago in Vidalia, Mississippi. She came to us three years ago with a record of splendid work behind her. Her stay has shown us a beautiful picture of a well-founded character growing brighter and stronger the longer we know her. Her grades have been fine, and though she was always anxious to make the highest was satisfied that the teachers had done their duty even if she did not. She leaves a warm place in the hearts of all who know her and upon their lips best wishes and good luck to Ida Mae.

(2) FRANCIS LEE, the boy with many jokes, was born somewhere in, around not quite so near to Piquette, Mississippi, and has lived in that section all his life. In the early days of education, he attended a little school called Cleveland, long since passed into ashes. His first year in school was under the instruction of Professor Gosselin. Four years ago he arose like a morning star, arrayed himself in all his wit and peculiarities and entered K. H. S. to fight his way to graduation day. He is nearly there, and as he says unless something bigger than a hame string breaks, he will make it in high.

(3) VERA (BILL) CUEVAS, the little girl who looks a bit Frenchy, but is more Scotch-Irish, was born eighteen years ago in Bay St. Louis, but moved to Kiln thirteen years ago—unlucky—and has been a student in K. H. S. all her school life. Bill contends for her rights and will even argue a question if she is not sure she is right, but will laugh and make up right or wrong. She doesn't work for honors, but works because she thinks it is her duty. She deplores the idea of students having to be examined, makes good grades, and now is not the least worried over having to pass the last one in K. H. S. Her graduation will mark the closing of a well-rounded school life and pass into history many happy remembrances by all who knew her.

(4) GEORGE ANDERSON, eighteen years old, was born near Columbia, Mississippi, attended five different schools but likes K. H. S. best of all. George is a very business-like young man, never jokes and can even make business out of fun. His work comes first and then his play. He is even in that he is as serious as a judge. His grades are fine always, and if he were to fail it would be the end of George. So far as rules go we don't need them for him for if he should disobey it would not be intentional. He came to us quietly two years ago, has lived the same way; and when he leaves us, his departing will be with a few words; but there will be left many pleasant memories and happy hours spent with him in K. H. S.

(5) VIVIAN CAMERON, just eighteen was born in Kiln and has been a student in K. H. S. all her life. She is hard, plays ball, takes an active part in all school activities. She has no outstanding peculiarity to be mentioned except one—minute she could whip the world and the next she is as meek as a lamb. Prof. likes her when she is in a good humor, and she likes Prof. when he is not mad, and for the sake of the school, they have never met up when they were both out of sorts. She makes fine grades, will finish with honors, and will tell us goodbye in tears.

(6) GEORGE MUNTON, was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, eighteen years ago. He came to Mississippi at an early age, settled with his parents at Kiln, where he now resides. George is honored and loved by all his classmates, having won his way into their hearts by being a fair and honest contender of his rights. The teachers like him to—obedience, and politeness seem as natural as honest work with him. He has always permitted him to take five subjects, thereby making him stay in high school with one summer's work. Just three years long. He leaves us a record of fine work, a school life of happy remembrances, and a vacancy hard to fill. His absence from us will be felt, though some where he will be seen making new friends and solving new problems.

(7) OREN CUEVAS, whose age is unaccounted for is somewhere in the neighborhood of what any good guesser might guess and he lives in Kiln where he was born in Hancock county. He has no peculiarities except he is a very peculiar fellow. He has smiled his way through school, addressing all scolds and rebukes from the teachers with a simple twist of the lower jaw, that inevitably produces a chuckle or two. He has been fair and honest, met his problems like a man and now plans on meeting one more—leaving K. H. S.

(8) MONIE ANDERSON, just sixteen, came to us two years ago bringing a fine record from other schools she had attended. Monie is our musician, can gladden the hearts of those who love music, and can make folks happy because they met her and heard her. Her grades stand at the top, her work can be counted above an average, and as far as cooperation in the school she is fine. Though we haven't known her for so long, we love her just the same and hate to see her go. However, since her leaving must be true we wish her well and can bet on her making good wherever she goes. She, being very modest and quiet, will have few good-byes to say and those not very loud.

(9) OLEASE ("RABBIT") DUBUIS-SON is nineteen years old, but still a kid. He is not loud nor boastful, always the same wherever you find him. He won his nickname "Rabbit" by being a fast runner and a good jumper. He passes examinations like he runs and jumps—fast and in high. Rabbit never tells us anything about his business, he looks after that himself, and even though he is willing to give you the right to your opinion, he takes his if the two conflict. He expects to finish with honors, enter college next fall and make his way good in life.

(10) JAMES LOVE, ("JIMMY") as he is called by all his friends, is considered one of the best students of the Senior Class. He was born in Hackley, Louisiana, in March, 1913 and has spent his school days in Meridian, Mt. Olive, Poplarville, and Kiln. "Jimmy" is a persevering, loyal, dependable student. His determination to make good grades has won for him admiration among faculty and students. "Jimmy" is a talented musician and by his rich voice has sung his way into the hearts of many. He has achieved fame in declamation, winning first place in the Gulf Coast Regional Meet in 1929. Ambition rules his brain, and love rules his heart. Character is his motto.

(11) CLAIBORNE LADNER, familiarly known at school as "Shorty," was born in the Dedeaux community twelve miles from Pass Christian, some nine years ago. After completing nine grades of his school work at Dedeaux School, he came to Kiln to be numbered with the graduates of 1930. He has a happy smile for everyone and has many friends at K. H. S. Claiborne has made a good record in football and basketball, but his class work always comes first with him. Having had a heavy schedule in his senior year in order to graduate, he has not had a chance to devote very much time to athletics. The record holds grades that anybody can well be proud of. A young man with his disposition, ambition, and perseverance has nothing to fear as he faces the future; for we feel that success will be the reward for his consistent efforts. As Claiborne leaves K. H. S., he will always be remembered as a real friend to the faculty and students, and as a true gentleman.

(12) MR. E. E. LUMPKIN, sponsor.

(13) ANNIE DANDRIDGE, eighteen years young, was born in Laurel, Mississippi, but lived in Kiln practically all her life. Ole Anne, as many call her, can always see the funny side of life and when the days are dark and the sun won't shine, she will smile a little just for fun. She is a natural born ball player, made the team at K. H. S. for four years, and will close her senior year winning many honors for the school on the ball court. She always makes good grades, looks forward to being on the honor roll and even though an athlete, believes in passing her examination first. She is anxious to see graduation day, when she can know what grades she will make, who all will be here, and how she will look.

(14) ANTHONY ("DIB") DUBUIS-SON, the athlete, was born twenty years ago in Slidell, Louisiana, but moved to Kiln with his parents at an early age, and has been a student in K. H. S. practically all his life. He has won many honors for all his life. On the football and basketball court DIB could not be beat and when it looked as if defeat were inevitable for K. H. S. his fellow students always rallied the cry, "Come on, Dib, and bring us a victory." He has been a splendid student, honest with himself and his teachers. Others might have made higher grades, but they were never any prouder of what they made than Dib. In leaving us he leaves a record that he is proud of and the school will long remember.

(15) EARL MORAN, seventeen years ago, saw light for the first time at Lyman, Mississippi, and he was so dissatisfied that he cried and cried until his parents moved him to Kiln, Miss., where he has resided for twelve long years. He has been an exceptional student, made good grades and worked hard for the school. Earl is well liked by all who know him and even the people of Hancock county thought so much of him that they placed him on exhibit in Canada, Washington, New York, and many other important places in the north and northeast on the last Know-Mississippi-Better-Train. He will finish with honors, work this summer, and enter college this fall. You can't keep a good man down, he won't stop.

(16) GLADYS HARRELL, eighteen but doesn't look it, weighs ninety-two pounds, and is sixty inches long, was born near Caesar, Mississippi, but has been a student in K. H. S. practically all her life. She says she is always second in "beau catching" for all the young men think she is a kid when they first meet her—"I don't care though I had rather be odd than common." She never failed on examinations in her life. Has always been on the honor roll and so far as having to be punished—oh well don't tell it, but a little lashing won't hurt anyone. Graduation holds no horrors for her. To pass all her examinations and then look cute will make her satisfied.

(17) (PECK) MAUFFRAY has seen eighteen summers to say nothing of the winters. He is a natural born leader, having been president of his class throughout high school. Peck has had more honors conferred upon him than any other student in his class, but has never been affected by them other than to take his responsibilities more seriously. Whatever good or bad thing might be said about him he is still Peck, the same little fellow he was when you first met him. He will lead his class to victory having the honor of being K. H. S. student of the largest graduating class. K. H. S. has ever had, eleven boys and seven girls. His last command will be "Go to College and make good."

(18) Miss N A O M I ETHRIDGE, assistant sponsor.

(19) ALPHIS MITCHELL is, twenty years old. He was born at Cleveland, near Piquette where he went to school until he came to Kiln, after staying here two years, he went to Piquette, remaining there until this session. He came to Kiln for his last year of high school. It is the misfortune of the Senior Class that he has not been a member during all its years. It did not take the class and teachers long to learn to admire his kind and unselfish disposition. He is a true friend, clean and wholesome in his sportsmanship. His diligence and perseverance have been shown in his class work as well as on the football field. Last but certainly not least, he is admired because—"Alpha is Alpha wherever you see him."

(20) ZULMA DUBUIS-SON, sixteen years old, modest, bright, and beautiful was born in Slidell, Louisiana, but moved with her parents in Kiln, Mississippi, when she was three years old and has been a student in K. H. S. all her life. She never talks only when she has something to say. She has never fallen below an average of ninety on her examinations and she has never been in a hurry—time has been her greatest riches. Last, but not least, she has never caused her teachers any momentary trouble. Prof. says, "I can trust her, she is true—I wish they were all like her."

DISCUSSES PROGRESS P. T. A. WORK

District Eleven of Which Hancock County is Part, Has Fine Record.

From five charter association members in 1909 to a total of 274 association members in 1929 is the record of the Congress of Parents and Teachers in the State of Mississippi, according to statistics given out by Mrs. A. E. Favre of Gulfport, chairman of district 11. The early membership included a small number interested in child welfare and the 1929 membership of such interested persons has grown to 14,309. A rather extraordinary growth in this period is seen from 1924 to 1929 when the membership increased from 9,703 to 14,309. The goal set for 1930 is 25,000 members in the State of Mississippi and every district is working toward this goal by attempting to reach the quota assigned. The year's membership closes March 15 and at the state convention which will be held in Gulfport, March 31 to April 3, the success of the year's enrollment will be shown. "Every association a 100 percent membership of the patrons of the school in which the association is located," is the state goal set by the president Mrs. Cook of Forrest.

Mrs. Favre is particularly interested in seeing district 11 reach its goal by March 15, and urges each association to give special attention to this phase of the work in the ensuing several weeks. District 11 includes the counties of Harrison, Stone, Hancock, Jackson and Pearl River. There were in 1929 a total of 35 associations with a combined membership of 1,365. Considering that there are 16 districts in the state it is observed that district 11 is well forward in associations and members.

It is interesting to recall that district 11 ranks high in efficiency and organization, and is characterized through the state as leading in these features as is seen from the 1929 record. Five of the 11 associations in the state reaching the state standard of excellence were in district 11; six of the 38 state associations attaining the national standard of excellence were from district 11; last year district 11 expended $5,007.75 for P. T. A. Work and this was the largest sum spent by any district in the state during the year; last year district 11 secured more contributions for child welfare day and state P. T. A. day and obtained a larger sum toward equipping the state P. T. A. than any other district.

District 11 has another distinction that all P. T. A. members delight to recall. Three of the five associations which were charter association members when the state organization was formed at Crystal Springs in 1909 were from the old district 6, of which district 11 is a former part. It is recalled that the original districting of the state was along congressional lines with 17 counties in district 6, and that Gulfport, West Ward, Poplarville and Hattiesburg were all from this district. The other two P. T. A.'s who were charter members of the state association were Brookhaven and Natchez. Statistically Hattiesburg is the oldest P. T. A. and Gulfport the oldest P. T. A. second oldest in the state P. T. A. organizations. Several other Mother's Clubs have operated much longer in the state, notably the West End Mother's Club of Biloxi and the West Ward Mother's Club of Gulfport, but as P. T. A. affiliated organizations Hattiesburg and West Ward of Gulfport rank as stated.

District 11 is proud to have the state convention meet at Gulfport and Mrs. Favre hopes to see every association in the district represented at the state meet. Several new associations have been formed since the last state meet including a new association in Hancock county, Waveland, and will be introduced proudly at the coming convention.

Quick Action

Years ago men used to drink themselves to death but it generally took a few years to do it. Now maybe one drink will accomplish the purpose.—Florida Times-Union.

PAINS Went Away

"I was very much run-down in health. I had a dreadful ache across the middle of my back. I had a dull, tired feeling, and I dreaded the thought of having to do my household tasks. I was tired when I got up in the morning. I got no rest from my sleep, and I was sleepy all day long."

"My husband got a bottle of Cardui for me. It was not long before I began to show a decided improvement. My strength began to return and I felt much more like myself. The sleepy spells gradually quit and the pains in my back and sides disappeared."

"Cardui is a splendid tonic for women. I proved it for myself."—Mrs. J. E. Shelley, Box 22, R. F. D. 1, Ellettsville, Texas.

STATE MILK SURVEY NOW UNDER WAY BY STATE DEPARTMENT

Milk Plants Co-operating to The End That Dairy Resources Information May Be Complete

A comprehensive survey of the commercial milk industry in Mississippi is now being undertaken by the State Department of Agriculture and according to a preliminary report issued by Commissioner Holton, an abridged information will soon be available regarding the development and capacity of Mississippi's newest industry.

Instructed by law to secure and tabulate production reports from all of the milk products plants each year, the State Department of Agriculture has since 1919 recorded the year by year growth of the dairy industry. This accumulated information was published last year in a booklet entitled "Twenty Years of Progress," which traced Mississippi's dairy development from approximately nothing in 1909 to an industry of state-wide importance in 1929. Ten thousand copies of the booklet were exhausted within thirty days following publication.

In response to this extraordinary interest in statistical and uncolored dairy information, the Department of Agriculture has this year so enlarged the scope of the questionnaire submitted to each of the more than one hundred central milk products plants in the state, that the report this year will be nothing less than a survey of the business side of the dairy industry in Mississippi.

"We have hundreds of requests for exact information concerning dairying in Mississippi," says Mr. Holton, "coming not only from farmers in our state, but also from farmers in other states seeking better opportunities, from manufacturing enterprises investigating possibilities of further development, and from newspapers and magazines desiring material for articles to be written and published."

"That we may more effectively answer these inquiries, we are asking the dairy plants of the state to co-operate with us in preparing a complete survey of the industry and we are delighted with the response in hand. Information concerning individual plants is regarded as confidential."

DEATH OF HENRY GREEN AT LAKE SHORE

Funeral services for Henry Green, long-resident of Lake Shore, this county, was held from his late residence at that place Tuesday afternoon, and many friends from that section attended in tribute to his memory and as an attestation of his character and splendid fellowship as well as citizenship. Interment was at the Catholic churchyard cemetery of that place.

Mr. Green had been the victim of many years ailment and death came to him in a measure as an alleviation of his suffering. He was a native of this county and 68 years of age at the time of his death. His passing away occurred at his home Monday morning, at 4 o'clock, at the late residence.

BIG RANCH BEING OPENED

A 1,000-acre cattle and sheep farm is being opened in Stone county by Dr. L. H. Livingston of Kansas City, with 600 acres of land now under fence and buildings and barns being constructed.

Part of the ranch will be put to feed crops and a part of pasture land for grazing. A herd of Jersey dairy cattle will be brought to the ranch within the next few weeks.

A Dire Need

The man who walks into trouble with his eyes open needs something more than a pair of well-fitting glasses.—Des Moines Register.

total, only aggregate or total figures being made public.

"Growth little short of remarkable has been made by the dairy industry in Mississippi during recent years and will continue in spite of the present depression, which we sincerely hope is only temporary. The dairy cow is the hope of agricultural Mississippi."

—A letter from Nome, North Dakota, addressed to The Echo inquires if the airline highway from Bay St. Louis to New Orleans, via Waveland, paved, has ever been built, and, incidentally the inquirer encloses a check for a year's subscription to The Echo. This proposed roadway is of vital importance to the people of both ends of the proposed road and it is singularly interesting an inquiry regarding the project should come from so far away, showing as it does, that not only we so vitally and locally concerned are interested.

A HINT TO BAY ST. LOUIS

The town of Long Beach this week voted to build a 500-foot pier at the foot of Cleveland Avenue for the benefit of residents of Long Beach who live off the beach front. The pier will be of wooden construction and will cost about $125,000. It is planned to have it complete for use this coming summer.

Opening New Avenue For City

The city of Bay St. Louis is actively engaged in opening through from Front to Second Streets what promises to be one of the outstanding thoroughfares, that of de Montluzin avenue. The roadway will be sixty feet wide and a number of big trees are necessarily being removed—making way for progress and improvement. This avenue will ultimately extend through from Front street back to Dunbar avenue.

C. Cray Moore, selling representative for the de Montluzin subdivision, the newest and perhaps one of the choicest in the city because of its high-class location, is quite busy in the premises of selling lots and already has a list of prospects that carries significance. Early purchasers, says Mr. Moore, will gain quite an advantage and as an investment he is of the opinion an unusual opportunity is offered.

The city will push the work of opening the new avenue with vigorous effort until completed. And new and added values to the city will result. De Montluzin avenue offers to the prospective resident the choicest there is and at lowest prices consistent with value.

New Telephone Directory

The Bell Telephone Company of this city issued and distributed a new issue of directory to local subscribers this week in which a new department is noted.

Every subscriber listed in the city carries with the name the street and number of dwelling thus serving as city directory as well. This improvement was suggested by President George E. Rea, of the Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, and the Bell Company readily recognized the suggestion and with the new directory put it into execution.

The directory carries new names, a fine array of advertisements from a number of live and progressive business people, and the book was printed in Bay St. Louis in the printing department of The Sea Coast Echo, this directory about the only one printed outside of the Bell Company's own printing plant, one of the largest of its kind in the South.

A copy of the telephone directory now serves double purpose and will be sought and used to advantage.

DEATH OF N. Q. MILLER

The Echo notes with much regret the death of N. Q. Miller, which occurred at his home in Pine Hills Wednesday, after an illness extending over a long period. Direct cause of his death was due to a sudden heart attack from which he never rallied.

He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Miss Edith. The remains were conveyed to New Orleans the same evening and in which city the funeral and interment was held.

Mr. Miller was house manager of Pine Hills Hotel and assistant in the management when the hotel was in operation and as such was known by many. He was noted for his fine executive ability and gentle manner, a prince of fellows, truly, and his passing away causes widespread and genuine regret. To have known "Nick" Miller was a privilege. We deeply regret to note his passing away.

HOLMES FAMILY.

THE USEFUL WAFFLE

When in doubt, have waffles. The ingredients are simple on hand in every household. The uses of the waffle are many. The course of breakfast lunch, the impromptu party dinner or supper. There is no food more adaptable, none more variable in its uses, none quicker and easier of production, than the waffle.

The breakfast waffle is never wasted. Capacity reached, the batter that is left can be put away in the refrigerator, and used again at lunch or at the light supper in the evening and, still better, at the impromptu afternoon tea.

Breakfast waffles are served with butter and sugar, or butter and syrup, with bacon or with sausage, depending on the likes and dislikes of the waffled family. There are varieties in even the breakfast use of the useful waffle.

For lunch or the impromptu afternoon collation, jam or jelly or marmalade can be used instead of butter, and for creamed chicken or sea food, the waffle makes an ideal base at supper time. The useful waffle is adaptable to any circumstance or to any taste.

With self-rising flour the success of the waffle batter is never left to chance. There is no waste. Self-rising flour is economical of both time and expense, as can readily be seen by the following recipe:

Waffles:
3 cups self-rising flour
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk
2 tbsp. sugar
Directions:

BAY HIGH TAG DAY SET FOR FRIDAY, FEB. 11

Bay High School will have a "Tag Day" Friday, February 11th for the purpose of raising funds to send delegates to "Ole Miss" for the first conference of high school editors, business manager, and sponsors of high school publications.

The senior class of Bay high school is proud of its special project "The Student Prints." It is true this publication is only a mimeograph paper, but a handsome silver loving cup is offered for the best mimeograph paper in Mississippi. Since "The Student Prints" does not have surplus funds or even paid subscription, it becomes necessary to call upon the ever loyal citizens of Bay St. Louis. Will you wear the blue and gold Friday so that your young journalists may be represented at the press conference with those from other leading schools of the state, is the appeal made by the school.

Dalton Hays, chairman of the debating committee received a letter Monday from New Orleans Manuel Training School in reply to his letter seeking a debate. The response stated that the present team is working on the annual debate held in New Orleans, and would not have an opportunity to debate with the Bay High team. Despite this disappointment the letter went on to say that another debating team might be organized, and if it would gladly debate with the Bay team.

At last the seniors have received their well earned privileges. Their petition, asking that they might walk in and out the front door, and come into the school building at all hours, was granted by Superintendent S. J. Ingram. Having passed their mid-term examinations creditably the seniors may be seen any day taking advantage of their privileges.

The new books that were given to the library by the senior class of 1929 were selected by their sponsor, Miss Burns. There are several novels dealing with American and European history. Some interesting and instructive biographies were also given. To the collection of history books was added a short history of England and histories concerning America as a world power.
